

HMS M.33: an incredible story of survival from Gallipoli

04/08/2015

Sir Peter Luff

On 7 August, the only ship to survive from the 1915 Gallipoli campaign, HMS M.33, will open to the public for the first time following a major National Lottery funded restoration.

In his guest Department of Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS) blog, the Heritage Lottery Fund's Chair Sir Peter Luff talks about his personal connection to the ship and why it's so important that she, her crew and the Battle is remembered 100 years on.

Read the entire post on the DCMS blog.

You might also be interested in...

News

Conservation project restores HMS M.33, the Royal Navy's only Gallipoli survivor

The First World War warship will be open to the public on 7 August following major National Lottery funded restoration

10/07/2015

HMS Caroline

News

£11.5m Lottery grant to transform last surviving Battle of Jutland ship

The Heritage Lottery Fund has confirmed the award of £11.5million to the National Museum of the Royal Navy (NMRN) and the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment (DETI) to conserve, interpret and display HMS Caroline, the lone survivor of the 1916 Battle of Jutland. The grant means plans to 15/10/2014